

Ionad an Bhlascaoid Mhóir The OPW Great Blasket Centre

Dún Chaoin,
Dingle Peninsula,
Co. Kerry

*Your Great Blasket Island

With stunning views of the wild Atlantic coast and islands at the halfway point of the Slea Head Drive, The Blasket Centre is a fascinating heritage and cultural centre/museum honouring the unique community who lived on the remote Blasket Islands until their evacuation in 1953.

The Centre details the community's struggle for existence, their language and culture, folklore and customs, and their extraordinary literary legacy - with classics such as 'The Islandman', 'Twenty Years A-Growing' and 'Peig'. Fáilte faoi leith roimh lucht labhartha na Gaeilge.

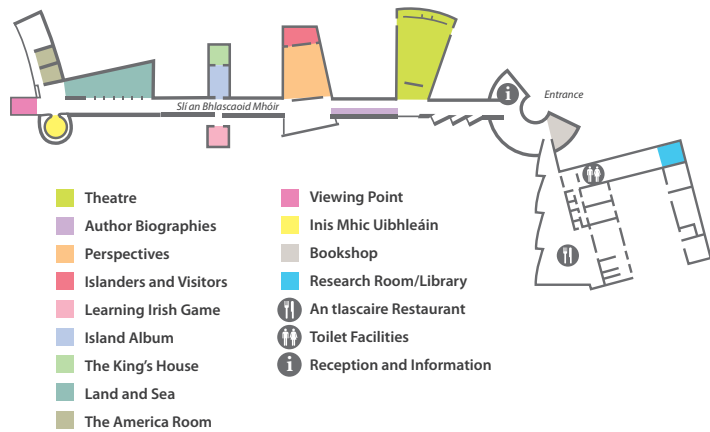

Come and enjoy:

- The Centre is one of 2 Kerry Signature Points on the Wild Atlantic Way, and we are Wild Atlantic Way Ambassadors 'Blasket Heritage', a beautiful audio-visual introduction to the Blasket Islands
- Fascinating exhibitions on the daily life, traditional fishing and farming methods, the Irish language and Blasket literature
- Interactive features to feel, listen and experience the sounds, images and elements of the islander's way of life
- The experiences of communities on the west coast of Ireland
- The effects of emigration on rural communities as seen in 'The American Room'
- The Irish language as it is spoken daily on the Dingle Peninsula
- 'The Seal-Cam' - recorded views of the largest seal colony in Ireland.
